

Napoleon museum and Treasures from the Churches

Brienne-le-Château, 3500 inhabitants, located on the North-East of the department Aube and the Forêt d'Orient Regional Nature Parc. A beautiful castle overlooks this town, which became famous, following Napoleon's stay at the local military school.

This old building is now a Museum dedicated to Napoleon's childhood, spent at the school. Also to be seen, the "Treasures from the Churches" located in the old chapel. A very interesting collection of sacred objects, silverware, cultural items coming from different churches in the Nature Parc.

Further information, click here.

See the interactive map of the park ➔

Read more

In order to organise your stay, click here.