Presentation

What a surprise to discover me hidden in this modest, beautiful country church! I am St James. A skilled local craftsman carved me towards the end of the C15th. His portrayal of me walking is masterful. I was one of the first with my brother John to be chosen by Jesus .You can see in my face the softness and firmness of the first apostles. I have stopped for a moment to preach in this village. My feet are naked, my jacket is short and I have a pilgrim's stick in my hand. I've raised one side of the warm cloak I'm wearing. My message is clear, it is written in this New Testament which I'm holding in my left hand: be poor like me, divide what you have, the goods you have are only lent and sooner or later, as you are, like me, only pilgrims here, it will be necessary to leave everything behind. But I have already passed through, if you have remembered my lesson, it is good, if not.... the Master taught me what I was to do: shake the dust from me feet when leaving as a way of saying good-bye.
