Presentation

Have you ever see a more handsome soldier, better equipped, better mounted, and treated by a sculptor with such detail? This sculptor must have seen a lot of soldiers passing at the end of the C15th and beginning of the C16th, but it is not impossible that it was one of the members of the Dinteville family that ordered and inspired my perfect bearing. This seigniorial dynasty gave France famous diplomats and important soldiers. Haven't we a painting by the important German painter Hans Holbein the younger showing a Dinteville *! In Champagne, they symbolized especially fidelity to the king; several were bailiffs of Troyes. I am an aristocratic saint; I symbolize here the model seignior that protects the masses from all dangers in the name of the king. I don't hesitate here, to face with serenity, the hate and division symbolized by a ferocious beast that I am piercing with my spear (restored).

*The Ambassadors painted for the chateau of Polisy is now in the National Gallery London
