Recycle your old, unused or unwanted goods and help your local wildlife.

We've teamed up with Recycle 4 Charity, Absolute Networks and Giveacar who can recycle the following items to enable us to do even more to protect wildlife in your local area:

- Mobile phones
- Printer cartridges
- IT equipment
- And even cars!

Recycle 4 Charity

Recycle for Wildlife Berkshire Buckinghamshire Oxfordshire

Recycle 4 Charity

BBOWT have teamed up with Recycle 4 Charity who recycle old, unused and unwanted items for the benefit of your local wildlife.

You can send empty printer inkjet cartridges, mobile phones and used laser and toner cartridges to Recycle 4 Charity who will then recycle the items sending a percentage of the profits to BBOWT. This enables us to do more to protect, enhance and conserve the precious wildlife in our region.

How to recycle through Recycle 4 Charity

To recycle your items you can either:

- Register an account with Recycle 4 Charity. Simply visit www.recycle4charity.co.uk sign up, it's free, quick and simple. Creating an account will give you access to useful tools to manage your recycling. From here you will be able to request freepost envelopes, or arrange a collection.
- If you have lots of items! For further information or help in setting up your account, contact info@recycle4charity.co.uk
- Request a freepost envelope from BBOWT. Contact us at partnerships@bbowt.org.uk or on 01865 775476.

Giveacar

Recycle for Wildlife Berkshire Buckinghamshire Oxfordshire

Giveacar

BBOWT have teamed up with Giveacar, a not-for-profit fundraising organisation that specialises in donating unwanted and no longer use-to-charitable causes.

This provides a free service which is available throughout the UK, and can arrange free collection of a vehicle.

Depending on its age and condition, they will either send it to an environmentally safe disposal and recycling at an Authorised Treatment Facility, or to a salvage yard.

Giveacar will take 20% of the profits and the rest will be donated to BBOWT.

Since Giveacar was set up in 2010, the organisation has raised over £100,000 for various charities, including more £10,000 for BBOWT.

How to recycle your car through Giveacar

To arrange the collection of a car, please visit www.giveacar.co.uk or call 020 9011 1664, making sure you quote BBOWT as your preferred charity!

To find out more, please contact BBOWT using the contact details below, or alternatively you can contact Giveacar directly on 020 9011 1664 or via email at support@giveacar.co.uk.

Absolute Networks

Recycle for Wildlife Berkshire Buckinghamshire Oxfordshire

Absolute Networks - Recycling IT for Wildlife

BBOWT have teamed up with Absolute Networks, as part of their Recycling IT for Wildlife scheme. This scheme offers an efficient, ethical and free service to dispose of your unwanted IT equipment for the benefit of your local wildlife. All profits are donated to your local Wildlife Trust, with the amount donated depending on the condition and specifications of the equipment collected and it's possible to see sales.

Absolute Networks are supporting The Wildlife Trusts across the UK through the Recycling IT for Wildlife Scheme, and have raised close to £10,000 for the Trusts in the first six months.

Absolute Networks offer professional on-site and guarantee the following:

- To collect your unwanted office IT equipment, completely free of charge, using a team of uniformed and trained staff with company transport to take all designated equipment from your premises with minimal disturbance and disruption to your staff. All disruption is covered by appropriate insurance agreement.
- All equipment is assessed on arrival at Absolute Networks' premises. It is then sorted into complete and partial equipment which has value in the secondary market.
- All equipment is de-inked - sensitive equipment is tested, cleaned and prepared for sale. Items for sale include whole or part IT items that, depending on the small quantity of material sent for recycling.
- Absolute Networks take data security very seriously and provide a full data destruction service on any computers, servers or storage devices we pick up.
- Non-sellable equipment is broken down according to relevant economic criteria and prepared for shipment to a UK waste recycler.
- The scheme uses a fully licensed Authorised Treatment Facility that operates under the WEEE Directive and is duty-of-care and hazardous waste compliance notes is issued on site at the point of collection.
- All waste equipment is disposed of ethically, within the UK, and Absolute Networks guarantee that no lead or hazardous materials end up in landfill in the UK, or anywhere else in the world.
