Pentwyn Farm Cottage is a lovely, traditional Welsh stone cottage set between two exceptional Gwent Wildlife Trust reserves and with stunning views across the Wye Valley.

The cottage sleeps 2 in the main bedroom (king size bed) with room for an infant in an adjacent bedroom. Relax in the tranquility of the large enclosed garden with its views of the beautiful surrounding countryside, or step into the nature reserves next door to enjoy abundant wildlife and you'll see thousands of meadow flowers including orchids in season. On the doorstep are lots of fabulous places for walking, cycling and mountain biking as well as historic attractions to visit.

We're delighted to be partnering with local holiday cottage company and Gwent Wildlife Trust corporate member, Wye Valley Cottages.
