Vine House Farm Bird Foods has been working with The Wildlife Trusts for the past 10 years, helping to protect and restore areas for nature and inspire people to experience wildlife first-hand. To date, Vine House Farm's donations have totalled over £1,250,000, including over £13,612 for Gwent Wildlife Trust.

To find out more about Vine House Farm and to buy food direct from their conservation award-winning farm visit the Vine House Farm website.

By buying your bird seed from the Vine House Farm catalogue which we send to you each year, you're helping to support Gwent Wildlife Trust as Vine House Farm donate 4% from your purchase to us.

If your friends or relatives from out of our county use your catalogue - you can be sure that their local wildlife trust will benefit directly from that purchase.

Stephanie Hillborne, OBE and Chief Executive of The Wildlife Trusts, says, "Vine House Farm is a wonderful example of how farmland can be managed to encourage wildlife as a central part of a successful and productive farm business. The clear commitment of the Watts family to wildlife makes Vine House Farm Bird Foods the natural partner for us as
