Join us for a #WilderFuture and play your part in nature's recovery.

We are a nation of nature-lovers, yet we live in one of the most nature-depleted countries in the world. If we want to put nature into recovery we have to create a mass movement of people calling for change. But we have hope. It's not too late to create strong laws which will help our wildlife make a comeback – and it's not too late to establish a Nature Recovery Network which will enable us to plan a wilder future.

How to take action for a Wilder Gwent

- Or help us create a new nature reserve on the Gwent Levels by donating to our Bridewell Appeal.
