Event details

Sun, 14/10/2018 - 11:00am - 12:30pm

A participatory walk led by local artist Celia Johnson as part of the h.Energy Festival. This walk takes participants to less well known areas of the woodland to make a creative response to the environment. Walking mostly in silence to draw and/or write in response to the landscape and its ambient sounds. Suitable for anyone interested in the woodland, walking and/or writing and drawing, previous drawing experience or particular skills are not necessary. The walk is steep and uneven in parts; please wear weather appropriate clothing and suitable footwear.

Places cost £2 and can be booked in advance below:
