Parking

Parking charges are vital to fund the continued management of Queenswood. All money raised through the parking charges is spent on site including on: staff, buildings, utilities and toilet facilities, path maintenance, woodland management and tree safety, playground maintenance and more.

Pay & Display Charges

- £1.50 for up to 1 hour
- £3 for over 1 hour, up to 2 hours
- £4 for over 2 hours
- £60 annual parking permit
- Motorcycles can park free of charge in designated motorcycle bays
- The car park includes spaces reserved for blue badge holders. Blue badge holders may park for free but MUST register for a day or annual parking permit on arrival at the Visitor Centre (open daily, 10am to 4pm)
- Coaches are charged £10 regardless of length of stay.

Parking Permits

An annual permit costs £60. These can be purchased:

- From the Visitor Centre, open daily, 10am to 4pm
- Online: CLICK HERE TO PURCHASE AN ANNUAL PERMIT ONLINE
- Via post, by downloading the form at the bottom of the page, and returning it by email to: info@queenswoodandbodenhamlake.org or by post to: Queenswood Country Park & Arboretum, Dinmore Hill, Herefordshire, HR6 0PY. Please mark your envelope Parking Permit and enclose a cheque made payable to: Herefordshire Wildlife Trust.

Please note, renewing your permit can only be done in person at the Visitor Centre which is open daily from 10am to 4pm.

Car Park Monitoring

Please note that parking attendants are contracted by the Queenswood & Bodenham Lake Partnership from a local company called Corporate Group, and are not the same as the Country Park staff. Our Country Park staff do not have responsibility for car park monitoring or enforcement.
