Jonathan Stone, Reserves Officer

Whilst working in Pembrokeshire, Jonathan met his wife who was working for Radnorshire Wildlife Trust at the time and was persuaded into doing some conservation volunteering. When the Reserves Officer post became available in 2005, Jonathan didn't need much persuasion to return!

Alicia Leow-Dyke, Welsh Beaver Project Officer

The Welsh Beaver Project is run by the six Wildlife Trusts in Wales and funded by players of the People's Postcode Lottery. Alicia is based here at the RWT office. With 6 years of beaver experience under her belt, Alicia is well placed to investigate the reintroduction of the European beaver to Wales. Read more about the project here.

Emma Morgan, Administration and Press & Publicity Officer

A local Radnorshire farmer's daughter who worked as a Script Editor in television before deciding to try something new. Joined the team in Sept 2005 with her main duties revolving around membership.

Contact Emma on emma@rwtwales.org

Rob Podmore, Estates Worker

Served his apprenticeship as a blacksmith and agricultural engineer before taking a change of direction working for the RSPB and Devon Wildlife Trust. Rob has been with the Radnorshire Wildlife Trust since Aug 2006 and regularly supervises the conservation volunteer group.

Contact Rob on rob@rwtwales.org

Nicki Holloway, Finance Assistant

Local girl Nicki joined the team in June 2013 in this new role to help with the day-to-day financial transactions of RWT.

Contact Nicki on nicki@rwtwales.org

Suzie Fraser, People & Wildlife Officer

With a tremendous knowledge of the outdoors and a gift with inspiring both young and old alike, Suzie enthuses everyone she meets about the work of the Wildlife Trusts.
