

Press list

Join the mailing list

Subscribe to our newsletter

Follow us

News

Press enquiries

If you have a press enquiry email press@wildlondon.org.uk or call 020 7803 4293 (out of hours: 07834 867 420)

Future environmental protections at risk

Thursday 20th December, 2018

The draft Environment Bill, just published by the Government, does not go far enough to tackle the serious environmental challenges we face or provide legal certainty for the future of our natural world.

Read full story.

New visitor centre for Gunnersbury Triangle

Thursday 18th October, 2018

London Wildlife trust has exciting plans for a new and much-needed education and visitor centre at Gunnersbury Triangle, to support the many visitors who enjoy this very special wildlife oasis and the work of our staff and volunteers.

Read full story.

New opportunities for young people to work with nature and wildlife in London

Thursday 27th September, 2018

Keeping it Wild is a new project, led by London Wildlife Trust and funded by Heritage Lottery Fund, that will inspire and empower hundreds of Londoners aged 11-25 to take part in urban nature conservation.

Read full story.

Cutting edge DNA analysis to reveal the secret wildlife of urban nature reserves

Wednesday 26th September, 2018

Volunteers and staff from London Wildlife Trust and the Natural History Museum are working together as part of an exciting, experimental project which they hope will reveal the hidden wildlife of two urban nature reserves.

Read full story.

We use cookies on this site to enhance your user experience

By clicking any link on this page you are giving your consent for us to set cookies.

Thursday 13th September, 2018

The Wildlife Trusts call on government: invest in medicine not marksmen

Read full story

All change at iconic Kings' Cross nature reserve

Tuesday 11th September, 2018

Demolition of the buildings at Camley Street Natural Park has begun, as London Wildlife Trust prepare for the creation of a new visitor centre and learning space, funded by Heritage Lottery Fund.

Read full story

Discover one of south London's best kept secrets, the Great North Wood

Monday 3rd September, 2018

The Great North Wood was a vast wooded landscape, which once covered the low hills that rise between Deptford, Streatham, and Croydon. Much of the old Great North Wood was swallowed up by development from the 1850s, but pockets remain, valuable havens for animals, plants, and people.

Read full story

Frog proof fencing will protect amphibians from works at Camley Street Natural Park

Tuesday 28th August, 2018

As we prepare for the demolition of the old visitor centre at Camley Street Natural Park, volunteers have been assisting our staff in ensuring our wildlife is looked after during this exciting period of change.

Read full story

MPs and councillors coming to 'enjoy the river' at this year's Tidefest

Wednesday 22nd August, 2018

Brentford and Isleworth MP Ruth Cadbury will be joining Hounslow Council Leader Steve Curran, Mayor Samia Chaudhary and other local councillors at the annual celebration of all the River Thames has to offer at this year's Tidefest at Strand on the Green on Sunday September 2nd.

Read full story

Redbridge nature reserve & rare wildlife threatened by Council approved haulage road

Tuesday 7th August, 2018

A much loved nature reserve within Fairlop Waters Country Park is under threat from a Council approved lorry route, despite the Council stating that it will "ensure there is no net loss of biodiversity on large development sites".*

Read full story

Accessibility | Contact Us | Privacy Policy

Be part of it →

Love London. Love Nature. London Wildlife Trust: Charity 283895. Company 1600379

Website by Precedent