Vine House Farm birdfood

Vine House Farm birdfood

If you buy your bird food from Vine House Farm, five per cent of the takings go straight to your local Wildlife Trust

The Wildlife Trusts have worked with Vine House Farm Bird Foods for more than five years. We work with them because as much seed as possible is grown, packaged and dispatched from their conservation award winning farm in Lincolnshire.

What's more, 5 per cent of the value of your order goes directly to your local Wildlife Trust to support activities in your community. The partnership with Vine House Farm has so far raised £1 million for The Wildlife Trusts.
