WaterSource

An innovative and award-winning approach to catchment management.

Dŵr Cymru Welsh Water is working with farmers, community groups and customers to change the way it looks after land in Wales. WaterSource is a new approach to bring a wide range of stakeholders together to address the challenges climate change will bring to the Brecon Beacons and our sources of drinking water.

Watch this short film where regulators and industry experts, including Wildlife Trusts Wales CEO Rachel Sharp, give their views.
