Balans prides itself in fantastic food, a friendly welcome and great service. It is open seven days a week from 7.30am until very late (the earliest closing time is 2am on Sunday).

Located in the heart of Soho, Balans makes an excellent choice for a pre-theatre meal, or perhaps a snack with friends while talking over the finer points of the night's acts.

Balans features a varied selection of food from both a seasonal and monthly menu, which should appeal to virtually any tastes. There's also a wide variety of breakfast specialities which includes American Pancakes, English breakfast, a variety of omelettes or even Cream Cheese stuffed Pain Perdu.

House specialities include a wide assortment of sea food, steaks, the Balans burger and various desserts which will tempt you. To wash down your meal, there's an extensive wine menu and also a cocktail bar which serves martinis, frozen daiquiris and mojitos.
