Groupies

Twenty-sixth Sunday of Ordinary Time Cycle – B

“Teacher, we saw someone driving out demons in your name, and we tried to prevent him because he does not follow us.” (Mk 9:38)

Groupies

Jesus wasn't pleased with John's complaint. "Don't stop him, if he not against us, he is for us." "My dear disciples, you are demonstrating a group mentality. Like a river which branches off in many directions, perhaps the "selfies" branch flows into a "groupies" branch. Each has its good points and its dangers.

About Sr. Juliemarie McDonald, SND

Sister Juliemarie McDonald joined the Sisters of Notre Dame of Chardon, Ohio in 1951. She holds an MA in English Studies from John Carroll University MA in Scripture from St. Charles Seminary. We met

Why the “selfie craze”?

Perhaps it was a phase of affirmation touted by psychologists as a means of a child's growth and self esteem.

Maybe it's plain old pride.

Then again, could it be a true time of maturation?

What are some things we might think about groupies?

Are they the age old heritage of family?

“No,” you say; “they are a bunch of snobs, the elite!”

Maybe they are just a group of like thinkers and doers.

They are terrorists! They are the enemy! They aren't in our group.

Whatever!

If a person is not an enemy, that person is an ally.

In unity there is strength.

Lord, make me a mender, not a defender who divides and creates chaos. Amen
