Listing description

Welcome to Octavia Wellness, a company I founded after seeking information about which cannabis products might help my mom following her diagnosis of Alzheimer’s Disease, two years ago. I began researching the best cannabis treatment options for her, and my discovery process left us frustrated, overwhelmed and confused. Her doctors couldn't help us aside from writing her a medical cannabis recommendation. Dispensaries were a turn-off with too many products, not enough support, and they were located in “red light districts.” Online services proved to be equally daunting — especially around dosing and selection.
