MACIEJ DANISZEWSKI

Neuroscience A/Prof Alice Pébay

Maciej Daniszewski obtained his MSc in Biotechnology from the University of Warsaw in 2015 and subsequently joined A/Prof Alice Pébay at the Centre for Eye Research Australia. Currently, he pursues a PhD at the University of Melbourne working on a large-scale glaucoma disease-modelling project using the custom-made automated platform. So far, 300 iPSC lines have been generated on the platform with another 250 planned in 2018. Maciej has already published 7 original papers and is the inventor of one international patent related to stem cell technology and automation.
