☰ Message From the Owner:

Why Choose Ambassador?

Small class sizes

- Character building is more easily managed
- Students are not comparing themselves or competing with large groups of students
- Students socialize and become friends with everyone
- More opportunities...
 - ... for valuable teacher/student interaction.
 - ... for classroom participation and confidence building
 - ... to use hands-on materials.
 - ... to go on field trips.
 - ... for active participation in sports.
- Allows for greater student success
 - Research shows that student achievement and success are directly related to the student/teacher ratio.

Strong focus on godly character

- Scripture memorization and its application to character building.

High academic success

- A Beka Book curriculum – recognized as being highly effective in classrooms
- The uniqueness of each child is accommodated by using a variety of teaching materials and methods conducive to meeting the needs of each learning style and personality.
- Both Montessori and traditional teaching methods are used to foster learning.
