Message From the Owner:

With an 80-year legacy of personalized service and world-class comfort, the Kahler Grand Hotel is a historic Rochester, MN hotel built in 1921 by John Kahler at request of the Mayo Brothers. In our early days, the Great Depression influenced the Kahler Hotel and Corporation as powerfully as the rest of the country, but our hotel's tradition of excellence never dimmed. Alternately, during this difficult time the pedestrian subway system was constructed, connecting the downtown Mayo Clinic campus of patient buildings and hospitals to surrounding hotels and retail.

In addition to being the top choice for Mayo Clinic visitors, our Rochester hotel is also a beloved destination for Rochester, Minnesota vacationers.
