You are already in a good work profile. Why do you want to do CA? What's your end purpose? No your work experience won't be counted as Articleship training experience. Will have to undergo Articleship or take dummy.

Hey, buddy I really appreciate your decision. Ya, you can go for CA but if only money which motivates you then don't go for that. You can take CPT exam or you can apply for direct entry (if you are eligible as per ICAI).

See you are a working professional I can understand it's very hard to manage time for study but you have to adjust.
