Sir,A.K.Guptaji,although i am still in CA final,& didn't clear the Exam in May 11,but i want to express my view on your problem,i have slightly different thinking,why 8-10 freshers cannot make a Audit firm & enter into the Practice,still there are lot of lot of work in the market,but in the present scenario,where engeneering & mba students getting jobs even with good packages & CA's don't it is really dis-appointing,after such a hard work carrying with patience,it;s ridiculuos,There is a lack in the system of ICAI,who cann't even provide placements to their members & ICAI says we are keen to provide the conceptual & practical knowledge,i know many CA's who even don't know the name of all AS & AAS,but withdrawing salary 50000-80000 per month.The ICAI have to make much more improvements.

-CA will be not a tough course,if ICAI starts coaching classes in all cities,similar to college classes.

-ICAI should provide placements to it's students,At present every body wants & expects good job,comparing to mba's & other professionals,there is very low no of students who becomes CA everyyear,in may 2011 as per data around about 6 400 out of 34000 became CA,which is still very much less than the requirement.i think there is some problem,further many companies doesn't recognise ICAI as a prestigious Institute,although they are now marketing well to trap students after 10th & 12th.

If my observations is wrong,please comment
