It is of no relevance to uniformise ITT and Orientation Programmes, they both are two separate activities carried under the domain of ICAI, that has to be compulsarily underwent by the student.

The following points will justify myr answer:

- 1. ITT is of 100 Hours, whereas Orientation is of 35 Hours.*
- 2. ITT is Technical and it requires lots of practice, whereas Orientation is Non-Technical and subjective area, wher rather than practice, personal, inter and intra communication skills matters.*
- 3. ITT examination is taken in various THREE stages i. e. Module Test, Practical Test and Online Test, whereas it is not so with the Orientation Programme.*
- 4. ITT is an area that endures lots of benefit to a student in their curriculum (subjects like Information Technology) as well, whereas Orientation helps in communication skills and personality development of a student.*

Thus, my dear friend, it is of no use in trying to synchronize the NO. OF DAYS for ITT and/or Orientation.

u have to take care of tht when u r registering itself for orientation n itt tht both r of different dates. chapter office vl nt check tht at wht dates u have regitered... only u have to look after tht.....

ya it is possible...

and if this happens to u then u can simply ask NIRC to shift your batch of orientation.

they will surely do this..
