I completed PE-II in May 2007. I opted for new final syllabus attempt which is in May 2010 and I registered the same. Institute also confirm it.

Somebody say "Institute is reduced the time period and ur attempt in 2009 Nov for new syllabus. Is it true or not.

You are right that the Institute has reduced the eligibility period to appear in final examination. You can appear for the coming Nov exams provided you clear the eligibility tests before the last date. If you are not interested in appearing for this attempt, you can do it next may. As such there is no restriction on number of attempts for CA final. The main thing is be prepared perfectly before you go for the exams. If you are not that confident that you can clear this exam in this Nov attempt, better to opt for may exams. You can postpone your attempt to May also. Wish you all the best for your exams.

RAM

i think u should go for the nov09 attempt.b'coz u have lot of time to get prepared for the exams

Hi

Better to Go for Nov 09, attempt, one year is more than sufficient for preparation but do your best in this time, If you take more time, it will actually result in law of diminishing returns i.e. as you approach exams closer, your efforts will be reduced
