As a mother of an infant, I had to take a break from my CA final preparation. I have crossed half the well, as we call it. Standing on the last thread to success, I very eagerly want to complete my CA studies. My husband, my child and me; we live in a foreign land; where an exam center is available. But taking care of my child and husband & studies together. Is it possible single handedly? Has any of you done it successfully? Your guidance is most appreciated. Thank you.

Where there is a will there is a way... & I can see a will in you.... So just start walking towards the goal & you will reach it... may be an attempt here or there... but till the time you dont get into it & start doing it how will you yourself come to know the small small hurdles which yu have to overcome... & be sure once you will come to know your hurdles you will surely also get a way & solutions to those.... So just get in.....

Hi

I am a tutor coaching for all professional courses like CA,ICWA,CS etc for last 25 years. I have seen many students completing professional courses (CA/ICWA/CS) with child, husband and house. Some with additional responsibilities of ailing mother in law or mother etc. Yes it takes more effort to complete it. DO it . It is worth the effort.. It all boils down to one aspects how eager are u to complete this course.

If you need any assistance feel free to call me on +91-9686585161 or mail me on mv_phadnis @ rediffmail.com
