i dont think its a good move at all. it is being done just to improve other proffesion which is not justified. If other profession has the guts And the required knowledge it will get it automatically

Yes CAs work should be limited to Audit because they are expertise in the same area of Direct Taxes and Auditing. And there is no issues of any competition between three wings CAs/CWAs/CSs as the government is not so foolish had Passed the Board of Studies Act for three Professional Degrees. For Kind Info for my friends CMA (Former called it CWA) got the Highes Package of Rs 18 lakh P.A which proves that the Economy Needs all the things. And not only CAs.
