Since the Q asked in most of the papers were straight fwd therefore marking had to be tough. I think we can't be benefited both ways, either the Paper setting or the marking will be tough so the valuation by the institute is well justified for CA Final. But the high result for CPT has created a chaos in CIRC and I think so might be the case in rest of the regions as well since huge no. of students have Qualified but they are not getting articleship now.

Congrats to those who passed. But two of my close friends couldn't succeed this time.
