CNIL (National Commission for the Freedom of Information) declaration and personal data

In keeping with French law (article 27 of law n° 78.17 of 06.01.78 relative to information, files and freedom) this site has submitted a declaration with the CNIL, registration no. 822738.

The personal details collected during e-procedures, forms and newsletter inscription are confidential and are on no account communicated to third parties.

You have a right of access, of modification to, correction of and deletion of retained personal information. To exercise your rights, apply to the IT Department, Quimper Council, 12, rue Verdelet, 29000 Quimper, telephone 02.98.98.87.17, webmaster@quimper.bzh.

Intellectual property and reproduction rights

In accordance with intellectual property, any partial or total reproduction of site content for collective use is strictly prohibited without the authorisation of Quimper Town Hall (article L.122-4). All content usage for commercial or publicity means is not permitted.

Hypertext links

All usage of hypertext links leading to one of the pages of mairie-quimper.fr is allowed, on condition that they come up in a new window and are presented unequivocally in order to avoid all risk of confusion between the quoting site and quimper.fr.

This authorisation is not valid for formats disseminating pornographic or paedophile content or those encouraging violence, racial hatred or revisionism or more generally for formats disseminating content contrary to public order and common decency and questioning the interest and the reputation of Quimper Council.

The presence of hypertext links on this site towards other web sites does not engage Quimper Council's responsibility for the content of these sites. Links towards other sites are for information purposes only.
