Who We are

MARTIN WEST

Associate

Martin has been with Lyons & Flood since 2013, initially clerking with the firm before joining as an associate following graduation from Fordham University School of Law in 2014. Martin's focus has been on defense of personal injury and cargo matters.

In law school Martin served as an Associate Editor on the Urban Law Journal and received the Parchomovsky-Siegelman award for best student scholarship with respect to publication of an article titled, Collateral Damages: How the Smartphone Patent Wars are Changing the Landscape of Patent Infringement Damages Calculations, 41 Fordham Urb. L. J. 315 (2013). Prior to entering the legal field Martin worked as a licensed property and casualty insurance broker and obtained degrees in psychology and philosophy from Emory University.
