General power of attorney (gpa) on a 2 rupee stamp paper

2 years ago 1 Replies

Report

My lawyer drafted a General Power of Attorney (GPA) drafted on a 2-rupee stamp paper. I live in Bangalore and this GPA is for my father's property. I got the GPA Notarized and 2 witnesses have signed it.

I DO NOT plan to get this GPA registered. Does this GPA require additional stamp duty?

1. "Irrevocable" POA for Sale /Gift /Transfer /Mortgage /whatever, specifically for "immovable property" must be stamp duty paid (500/-) and duly registered (1000/-), before the local office of Registrar of Sub-Assurances, anywhere in India.

2. The above is compulsory, irrespective of any blood relation /whosoever.
